PRESS RELEASE

November 28, 2006
Chelmsford High School

CHELMSFORD HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT MICHAEL CLANCY SELECTED FOR THE ALL-EASTERN BAND

Senior Michael Clancy of Chelmsford High School was notified this week that he was selected for the 2007 MENC (Music Educators National Association) All-Eastern Band. The band consists of the top high school musicians from New York, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Maine, Vermont, Rhode Island, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Connecticut.

Mr. Clancy qualified for consideration by receiving a top score at the Mass. Music Educators All-State Festival last year where he performed with the All-State Band.

Michael will travel to Hartford Connecticut for several rehearsals leading up to the All-Eastern Concert on Sunday, March 11, 2007. Michael plays percussion with the Chelmsford High School Band and is also the President of the Tri-M Music Honor Society.

This is the top honor for a high school musician and Chelmsford High School and the Fine and Performing Arts Department is proud to announce Michael's selection to this ensemble.

If you need more information or would like to set up a time to talk to Mr. Clancy, please contact Mr. Michael M. LaCava, Fine and Performing Arts Coordinator at the above phone number and e-mail.
